Dear David,

I am very pleased to learn about the Tibetan Language Institute and your activities to help preserve and propagate the Tibetan language. The course materials that you have prepared are excellent. And I wish you great success in developing a school to teach Tibetan. This can be a vehicle for helping many people.

In general, even knowing a little Tibetan is beneficial in deepening an understanding of the Dharma. For those who know no Tibetan, there is an inherent limit placed on what can be learned about the Dharma. For those who learn Tibetan, there is no limit to their studies or to what they can learn. Learning even a little Tibetan can deepen students' understanding of the Dharma.

I will be happy to do anything I can to help the Tibetan Language Institute expand its activities. I look forward to coming to the Institute in the future to teach, and I will send you anything you need.

With all my good wishes,

(signed)

Thrangu Rinpoche
